Old Business

Lenten Fish Fry

Darin Holmes reported that the second annual Lenten Fish Fry will be hosted by various organizations at St. Joseph's Halle each Friday of Lent.

The cook teams – St. Joseph's society will be providing the cook team for each Friday. Cook team members will vary from week to week, depending on circumstances

Set-up will be coordinated by St. Joseph's Society

Each participating organization knows the dates they are to participate. Organizations will provide servers and clean-up. Servers are to arrive from 4:15 to 4:30 and bring either a hairnet or cap. Organizations are to provide 6-8 people for clean-up.

Due to hall rental conflicts, the April 1st and April 15th event dates will be held in the school cafeteria.

Suggested donation is $5 per plate

Darin stressed that the purpose of the event is a community building event, including non Catholics.

It is also intended to reflect the meaning of Lent. It is not a fundraiser.

The menu will consist of fried catfish, hushpuppies, French fries, Cole slaw, water and tea.

BBQ: March 20, 2011

The Feast Day BBQ will be held Sunday March 20, 2011. Darin Holmes and Carlos Juenke reviewed the list of assigned team leaders:

Servers – Inside – Marlene Nebgen

Outside – Randy Stehling

Cooks – Butch Zenner

Cashiers – Inside Ruben Heinemann

Drive Through – Mike Granville

Clean-up – SJS volunteers

Set-up – Carlos Juenke, Wade Boone, Darin Holmes, Jeff Dittmar and volunteers – Saturday morning at 9:30

Raffle ticket sales are going well – Will be continued through Sunday, March 20.

Some Silent Auction items remain to be picked up or delivered. Most are collected.

Halle Restoration and Capital Campaign

Jeff Dittmar reported that the building committee visited projects completed by the contractors that were interviewed to ascertain the quality of their work. He also stated that the preliminary drawings by Randy Stehling are completed and ready to hand over to the selected contractor for a preliminary cost estimate.

Carlos Juenke stated that the fundraising committee met and made a commitment to the parish not to start construction until the end of November or the start of next year.
